

Referral Partners

Capiche is a web-based platform for public companies to take control of their private placements; reducing costs, ensuring compliance and simplifying administration.

Connect

Help those in your network bring their private placements online by referring them to Capiche.

Support

Support those in your network and the industries in which they operate by fostering the adoption of legal technology.

Earn

Earn referral fees for telling us about opportunities. We manage the sales process and implementation.

Streamlined private placement process

Securities laws and stock exchange policies are constantly changing and increasingly complex yet private placements continue to be completed using a paper-based manual process. As a result, significant time, expense and expertise are required to undertake and complete a private placement. Capiche provides issuers a secure web-based platform that brings the private placement process online; reducing costs, ensuring compliance and simplifying administration.

Issuers, investors and all other participants benefit from Capiche. The platform ensures that the private placement process is fully understood by all users and tailored to their circumstances. Everyone has full confidence that the private placement is effected in full compliance with securities laws and that confidential information remains confidential. More of the monies raised are available to the issuer for furthering corporate objectives; thereby increasing shareholder value.

New revenue stream for you

Our Referral partner program is ideal for legal and financial advisors of public companies and others involved in the financial markets. Refer your clients or others in your network to Capiche and earn referral fees.

Referral partners may use Capiche's marks and logos and have access to marketing materials. As Referral partners gain expertise with Capiche, they can move on to become Sales partners and earn even more.

To participate in our Referral partner program, contact us. If we determine you are qualified, we'll ask you to complete our referral partner agreement and get you started!

We're looking for partners who share our vision and passion for simplifying the capital raising process.
Contact us and start referring Capiche.
